Amazing Grace

JOHN NEWTON

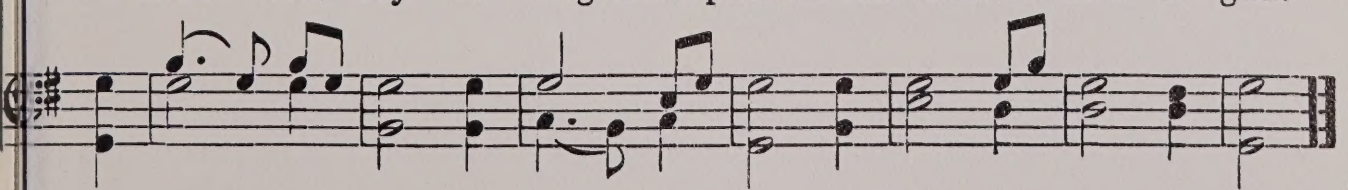

Southern Melody

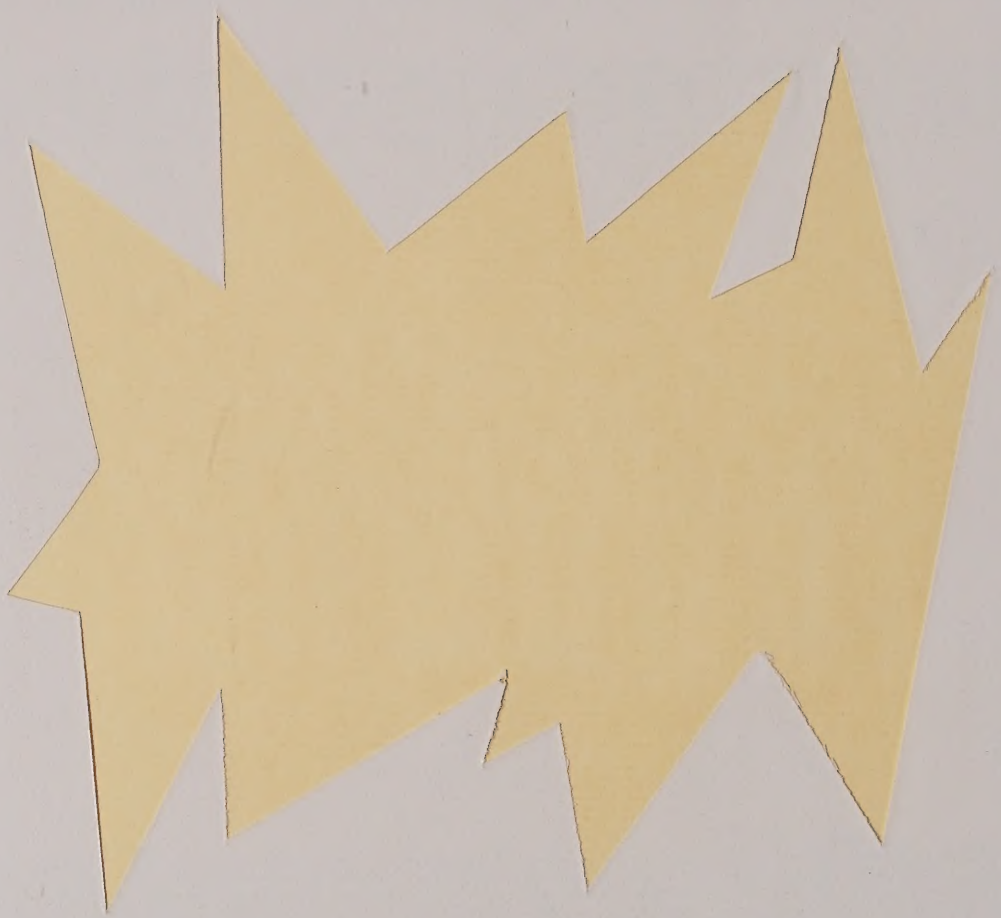

1. A - maz - ing grace! how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me!
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears re - lieved;
3. Thro' man - y dan - gers, toils and snares, I have al - read - y come;
4. When we've been there ten thou-sand years, Bright shin-ing as the sun,

I once was lost, but now am found; Was blind, but now I see.
How pre - cious did that grace ap - pear The hour I first be-lieved!
'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
We've no less days to sing God's praise Than when we first be - gun.

Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

A Musical Missionary Worthy Of Note

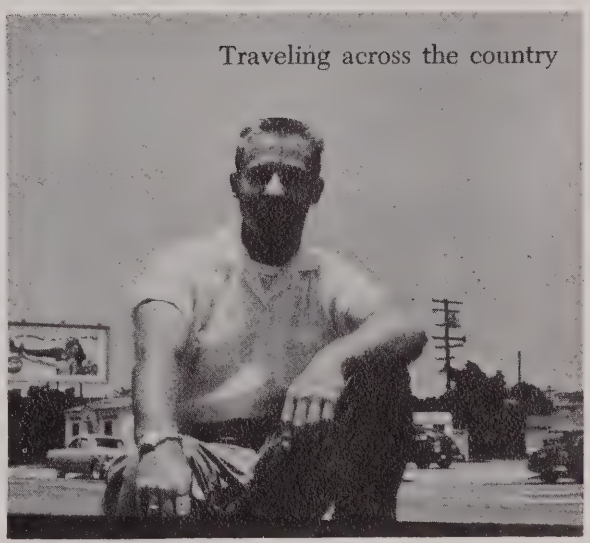

DONALD E. OGDEN
A.B., A.M., B.D.

As he uses his time and talents unreservedly for the Lord, the activities of this educator might be summed up in the phrase "music is his life." From his home in Los Angeles, California, "Prof" went to Bob Jones University, where he received his Master's degree in music, and there he began his teaching career. In 1950 he came to Grace Seminary and joined the faculty of the college music department. In addition to heading the department now, he directs the choral groups, travels extensively with musical teams from the student body, and is minister of music of the Winona Lake Brethren Church.

We as students have come to love and respect this man for his warm and real approach to us and to life in general.

In recognition of his varied contributions to our school and particularly for his outstanding testimony in the field of music, we are proud to dedicate the 1960 GRACE to PROFESSOR DONALD E. OGDEN.

Our President Speaks . . .

Believing that Christianity has "more than one dimension," and that much of the present moral and spiritual confusion is due to inadequate conceptions and one-sided emphases, Grace Theological Seminary and College aims to present a complete and carefully integrated view, giving proper consideration to all its essential elements.

Considered objectively, Christianity is held to be distinctively SUPERNATURAL REVELATION exhibiting a threefold content: a Person, the eternal and incarnate Son, our only Saviour, in whom the invisible God is perfectly and finally disclosed; a Doctrine, the medium of divinely inspired truth by which the revelation of the Son is brought infallibly and intelligently to men; and an Ethic, in which there is embodied the will of God for His personal creatures.

On the subjective side, Christianity is presented as a PERSONAL EXPERIENCE having three distinct aspects: a Relationship with the living God mediated through the Person and redeeming work of the Lord Jesus Christ; a Faith which lays hold upon Christ through the truths which reveal Him in the record of the written Word; and a Life in which the Christian believer progressively realizes and fulfills the revealed will of God.

Thus in Christianity, both on its objective and its subjective sides, there appear correlating elements which are mystical, doctrinal, and ethical; answering fully to the deepest needs of men —spiritual, intellectual, and moral. The neglect of any one of these constituent elements in the interest of a so-called "simplified religion" is a tendency with which this school has no sympathy. To diminish Christianity, either by careless omission or deliberate intent, is to plunder its fascinating richness and set limits upon its wondrous power to satisfy the most vital needs of human life.

The Revelation of Christianity is both historical and living; grounded in facts which no historical criticism can dissolve, yet continuously accessible to Christian experience through the written Word. Thus the link between historic revelation and personal experience is the Word. This divinely inspired Word of the Old and New Testaments constitutes the record of historic Christian revelation, and is at the same time the immediate and tangible raison d'etre of Christian experience, both as to its beginning and future progress. "The seed is the Word of God."

"Being confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ." Phil. 1:6

The whole of the Christian life is a miracle of God's grace. In grace He begins the miracle of regeneration. In grace He is our Advocate at the Father's right hand. In grace he will perfect our salvation, body, soul and spirit in "the day of Jesus Christ." "Marvelous grace of our loving Lord!"

PAUL R. BAUMAN
A.B., B.D., D.D.
Vice President in charge of Public Relations

"For He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him." II Cor. 5:21

There are many profound truths in the Word of God, but none can be greater than the assurance that the spotless Son of God became what He most abhorred, in order that He might confer upon me His own righteousness.

HERMAN A. HOYT
B.D., Th.M., Th.D.
Dean and Professor of New Testament and Greek

"That I may know him" (Phil. 4:10) has been a consuming passion with me since the day I first experienced His saving grace. I do not mean mere knowledge about Him. That is good, but in no sense takes the place of knowing Him. With intense longing I yearn for that day when I shall see Him in His fullness face to face.

Faithful Guides

HOMER A. KENT, SR.

"Great is thy faithfulness." Lam. 3:23

Throughout the years I have endeavored to realize in a small way the measure of God's goodness to me. To have been accepted in the Beloved overwhelms me and I humbly praise Him for all the blessings I hold in Christ. He has been so faithful to me in letting my lines fall in pleasant places, first in the pastorate and more recently to labor with dedicated men and women in Grace Seminary and College.

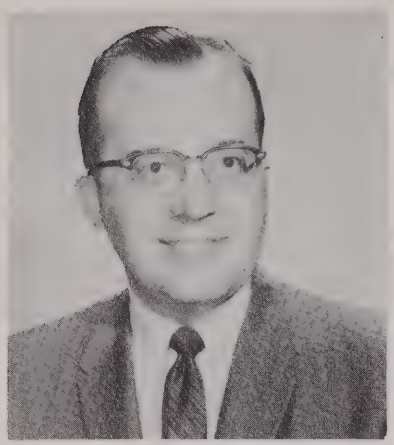

JAMES L. BOYER
B.D., S.T.M., Th.D.

Financial Secretary and Professor of Greek and New Testament

When I look back to the pit from which He brought me, and when I look ahead to the unbelievable destination to which he is taking me—"to be conformed to the image of His Son"—it becomes my deepest desire to continually behold the glory of the Lord Jesus in the mirror of His Word and thus to become day by day more transformed into His likeness (II Cor. 3:18, my life-verse).

Service for the Lord plays a primary role in life at Grace, and our Christian Service Department has been organized to encourage and guide students in this area. Groups of students carry the gospel in word and in song to jails, hospitals, and teen-age and children's groups, as well as serve in various ways in the area churches. These activities give an outlet for precious

The athletic phase of campus life is broadening under the leadership of Coach Dick Messner. Grace joined with four other Indiana colleges this year to form the Mid-Central Conference. Smallest of the five M-CC schools, Grace competed with them in basketball and baseball.

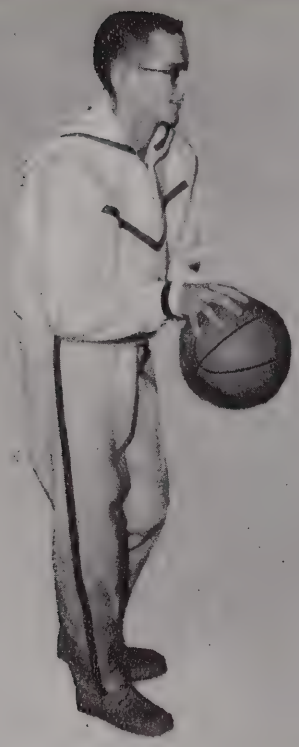

A big boost to Coach Messner, his team, and their spirited fans came with the Lancers' victory over arch basketball rival, Goshen College. It was our first defeat of them in seven years' contests.

Alumni Return For Bible Conference

Dr. William McCarrell

Promoting spiritual growth among the student body, the faculty, and their own group is the chief ministry of the Grace Seminary and College Alumni Association.

To advance this ministry, the association annually presents a mid-winter Bible Conference which features an outstanding Bible teacher and a series of lectures given in memoriam of the late Dr. Louis S. Bauman. This year the speaker was Dr. William McCarrell, pastor of the Cicero Bible Church in Cicero Illinois. Dr. John G. Mitchell, pastor of the Central Bible Church in Portland, Oregon, was the lecturer.

The association officers who organized the 1960 conference were Rev. Earle Peer, president; Rev. Edwin Cashman, vice president; Rev. Rolland Hein, secretary; and Rev. Gene Witzky, treasurer.

Achievement Plus Potentiality

Jim Custer, student body president, has been serving the Lord in many ways while here at Grace. Active in Student Council, varsity basketball, college choir, and extensive gospel team work, Jim still manages to maintain a high academic standing.

Charles Henry has also been active in student government and intramural sports, as well as having been layout artist for the 1959 Grace and the 1959-60 Grace Sounding Board. Vice president of his class for two years, Chuck has taken part in school plays and has served consistently in the Christian Service Department. He has been named to the Dean's List every semester since he enrolled at Grace.

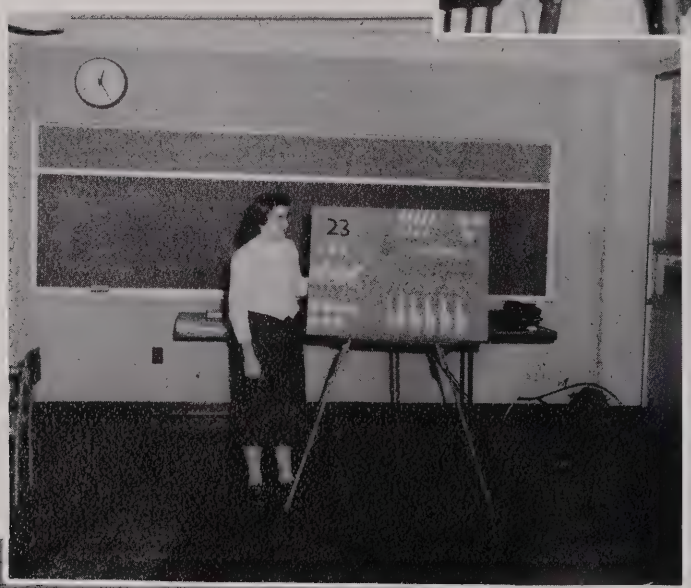

Terry Kirkpatrick, president of the senior class, has been busy as a Christian Service group leader and prayer chairman of the men's dormitory. Terry has also participated in the school plays, was editor of the 1959 Grace and the 1959-60 Grace Sounding Board, and has made an admirable scholastic record.
